

INVITATION

UWC/CHELSA SEMINAR

Research Data Management; Scholarly Communication, Open Access and National Sharing of e-Resources; and LIBQUAL new developments and collaborative opportunities for libraries.

Featuring speakers

Stephanie Bradbury

Research Support Coordinator at Queensland University of Technology whose role is to provide a range of activities that support researchers, including:

- Coordination of workshops supporting researchers
- Bibliometric reporting and citation tracking
- Advice on research data management issues
- Advice on scholarly publishing strategies

Talk: Research Data Management journey at QUT-Lessons Learnt

Dr Wolfram Horstman

The Chair: Scholarly Communication and Research Infrastructures at the Association of European Research Libraries and also a Director at Gottingen State University Library.

Talk: An overview on LIBER Scholarly communication national initiatives, resource sharing benefits and lessons learnt

Mark A. Puente

Director for Diversity and Leadership Programs at the Association of Research Libraries (ARL), a position he has held since March of 2009. He directs all aspects of the Association's diversity recruitment and leadership development programs, and serves as the ARL staff liaison to the ARL Committee on Diversity and Leadership.

Talk : LIBQUAL new developments and collaborative opportunities for libraries

FRIDAY

14 August 2015

10h00 - 12h15

UWC Library Auditorium

PROGRAMME

10h00 - 10h10:	Welcome: Pateka Ntshuntshe- Matshaya: UWC Library Director
10h10- 10h30:	Speaker 1: Stephanie Bradbury : QUT Research Data Management
10h30- 10h45:	Facilitator: Allison Fullard: UWC Deputy Director Libraries
10h45- 11h00 :	Tea Break
11h00-11h20:	Speaker 2: Dr Wolfram Hortsman : LIBER Scholarly Communication, open access, resource sharing and national benefits
11h20- 11h35:	Facilitator: Vivian Agyei: Director Libraries TUT
11h35-11h55:	Speaker 3: Mark A. Puente LIBQUAL new developments and collaborative opportunities for libraries
11h 55-12h05:	Facilitator: Alfred Nqotole: Assistant Director Libraries UWC
12h05-12h15 :	Vote of Thanks: Prof. Frans Swanepoel UWC Vice Rector and DVC Research Support and Innovations