

The 9th Pan-African Literacy for All & 10th RASA National Literacy Conference

Theme: Imagination and Literacy – Theory and Practice

Teachers are invited to explore new ways of thinking about imagination and literacy, and engage with the most recent international and national research in the field at the 9th Pan-African Literacy for All & the 10th RASA National Literacy Conference.

The conference will provide a forum for teachers, teacher educators, writers, librarians, researchers, academics, publishers, parents and children to showcase research practice and innovative literacy strategies that imaginatively engage literacy development across Africa.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- Marcie Craig-Post
Director
The International Literacy Association
United States
- Barbara Comber
Research Professor
Queensland University of Technology
Australia
- Viv Edwards
Professor of Language in Education
University of Reading
United Kingdom
- Kieran Egan
Founder and Director
The Imaginative Education Research Group
Canada
- Des Hugo
Principal
St Mary's Junior School
South Africa
- Gcina Mhlophe
Iconic activist and storyteller
South Africa
- Carole Bloch
Director
Nal'ibali - Reading for enjoyment
South Africa

VENUE:

Baxter Theatre & UCT Music College in Rondebosch, Cape Town

DATES:

MAIN CONFERENCE:

2-4 September 2015

FAMILY AND COMMUNITY LITERACY DAY:

5 September 2015

TEACHER REGISTRATION FEE:

Reduced fee for teachers: R1000

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:

Visit www.rasa2015.co.za to register online, and for more information and programme updates.

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Reading takes you places

Proud sponsors of the Pan-African Reading for All & RASA Literacy Conference 2015

